

Imminent Crisis Management Services

Vision & Mission

Should I take the threat seriously? Would someone really harm my family? Should I be worried about civil unrest?

At J2 Risk we have decades of experience helping clients answer these difficult questions. Our vision is to provide practical, professional, and unmatched security for our clients – from event security to social unrest.

All of our agents must have experience with US Military Special Operation Units or federal intelligence agencies – assuring you that you're in the best hands possible.

We fulfil our vision by offering access to the following specialty security services:

The J2 Risk Security Operations Center. We monitor social media, law enforcement, and open sources to gather intel for our field staff.

Quick Response Force: Our highly credentialed agents can be mobilized locally within hours – with full medical and emergency communication capabilities

Protective Details. Our team will develop a security plan in response to the present risk, with dedicated operators on site.

Meet Our Team

J2 Risk's local team in the Twin Cities is comprised of 16 highly certified and credentialed former military special operations personnel. Meet two of our leading agents...

John N.

John N. has over 30 years of experience as a member of the US Army Special Forces (The Green Berets), originations within the US Government, and the private security industry. He is a highly skilled operator and executive protective agent.

John has worked in many high-risk areas of the world from the Middle East, Africa, Central and South America, Asia, and southwest Asia.

John's assignments have been in multiple leadership positions as a Long-Range Surveillance Team Leader in the first Gulf War to a Special Forces Team Sergeant in charge of a Military Freefall ODA for multiple tours in Afghanistan and Iraq.

Currently, John has been conducting executive protection, kidnap for ransom services, recovering personnel from parts of Africa to Central and South America. He is conducting special activities in support of US National security programs. John is currently providing training and protective services to US Special Operations units for various operations and planning.

Quentin C.

Quentin C. is an experienced protective agent and special forces operator. He served as a Special Forces SFC (E7) 11B40 Reconnaissance Platoon Sergeant and personal security detail for the Battalion HQ staff.

His responsibilities included, Tactical Commander/Team Leader, coordinating all aspects of movement, route planning, threat analysis, coordination, and mission briefing. Responsible for motorcade operations and overall perimeter security at a venue site.

Quentin has executed hundreds of personal protection details. He has designed and conducted personal safety and risk assessments, liability assessment, and provided on-going protective and security services for confidential executive clients. He has coordinated transportation and safety procedure programs for personnel and products.

Work With Us

The very core of risk mitigation is preparedness. While civil unrest is very difficult to predict, the conditions present today point to a high probability that the current political climate will cause more unrest.

Our team of hyper-qualified protective agents are in extremely high demand. If you sense that a security risk is imminent call us now.

Term & Conditions

- All agents are booked for 12 hours shifts and billed at a flat rate of $2800 per shift.
- A single $950 charge for transportation into the market will be assessed for each agent.
- Contracts must be signed by all parties who will be covered.

Each agent will be in communication with a security operations center and will be informed of conditions throughout the region. All agents are licensed, insured, and have First Responder certifications.
